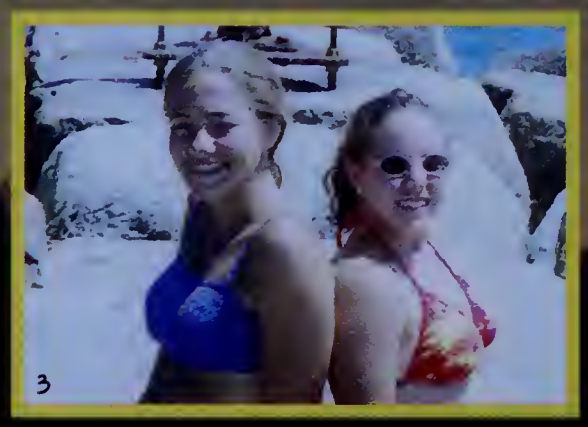
Nothing Gold Can Stay



Throughout the course of our lives we experience various rights of passage. Entering high school is one of the first major life changes we experience. Freshman appreciate the new sense of freedom that comes with their passage and are quick to take it for granted. Being the oldest and most experienced students in B-R, the senior class learns to really treasure their time left at the Regional as graduation gets closer with every passing day.

Life as a high school student drastically changes upon graduation, whether graduates choose to attend college or begin working and earning a living. The realization that one's adult life has truly begun comes with every bill that has to be paid, and every student loan that is waiting to be paid off after college. As seniors prepare for college and learn to support themselves, they realize how special high school is....

7. Vanessa Carney is living large in Frumpy's hat.
8. The Triangle, Toby, Koo G Us, and Jeeef throw up signs before the junior prom.
9. S. Saunders, C. Arrighi, C. Duerden, B. Brezner, D. McGovern, C. Ricciardi, S. Salamon, S. St. Martin, K. Chappel, K. Harrington, A. Mastria, A. Clapp, L. Burt, and B. Dailey bring in the New Year with close friends.

Younger Years

Although the past few years have flown by, the memories we have made along the way will forever remain golden in our minds. Instead of spending our days concentrating on world events or school tests, we spent our days sitting in the sandbox and debating what color freeze pop we wanted. The boys happily kept themselves entertained with the newest Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles toys, while the girls were inside with their Easy-Bake Ovens and Care Bears. Our days were filled with Winnie the Pooh, Scooby Doo, and Sesame Street. As we grew, our priorities changed. Now, as we look to the future, we can only cherish the light-hearted days of our youth.

11. Matt Peabody, Tim Cronin, Clint Cooper, and Derek Bracato give Tim Hall a lift before their act for the "Oldies but Goodies Show" in 8th grade.

12. J.O'Neil, L. Venuti, S. Durso, H. Laubinger, A.Forman, and M.Fitzpatrick work hard in shop class.
13.B. Smith, B. Noone, R. Leroux, A. Porazzo, J. O'Neil, D. Van Dyke, M. Fitzpatrick, R. Sperrazza, and C. Derocher pose at the 8th grade graduation party.

Athletics

Go For the Gold!

B-R athletes have always been in the upper echelon of courage, determination, and sportsmanship. Our athletes embody both the competetive spirit and scholarship necessary to not only succeed in sports, but also to be productuve members of the B-R community. These may be our golden years of athletic ability, but the lessons we learned on the Trojan's battlefields will last a lifetime.

10. Golf captain Cory Blanchard gives some advice to Matt Cayer.
11. Jill Parenteau, Christina Ricciardi, and Kristen Francour cool down after winning a meet.
12. Jen Lin takes a long stride over a hurdle.
13. Steve Prisco swings hoping to get that home run.

Academics

We here at B-R take pride in our many academic acheivements. Students courageously come to school every day expecting a challenging learning experience. Through B-R's Science, Social Studies, English, Language, Art, Mathematics, and many other courses offered, we prove that B-R consists of many intelligent students and faculty members. Our teachers may be tough at times, but students always know who they can turn to for help.

1.Rusty Best is determined to get an A.
2. "Can't a guy catch a nap?" wonders Dave Miles.

10. Shannon Morrissey, Kim Smith, and Allison Howe rush to their classes.
11. A history class ponders an age-old question.

Friendship

As students at B-R the times we will remember the most will be the times spent with friends. Special moments such as the pep rallies and proms unite the two towns, but the little things formed lasting frienships. During football games, dances, parties, and bonfires, we bonded and became the class of 2003 we are today. Our friends supported us through the loving and the fighting, the laughing and the crying, the giving and the taking, all the make-ups and the break-ups and for that.. we will never forget them.

1. Andy Ameral gives Christina Ricciardi a lift.
2. Dennis Rodrigues and Greg Feroli share a friendly smile before going out for the night.
3. Good friends Jessie Cruise, Kylie Biela, and Camille Curry share a bonding moment before the beginning of class.
4. Alishia Gonsalves embraces Laura McElroy on the way to class.
5. Dan Lucchetti, Marc Pratti, Gus AL-Obaidi, and Justin O'Neil take time out from their junior prom to smile for the camera.

6.Holly Laubinger and Staci Durso prepare to reak havoc on Halloween.
7. Brigid Dailey, Cristen O'Donnell, and Kim Nehiley are fearless as they wait to ride a roller coaster at 6 Flags.
8. J. Bascon, J. Powers, M. Fitzpatrick, S. Prisco, M. Peabody, P. Moynihan, and C. Cooper meet up before a Saturday home football game.
9. Shannon Morrissey, Alysa Freni, Lindsay Saba, Kristyn Whittington, Kim Smith, and Allison Howe anticipate pasta day.
10. Matt Peabody, Katey Chiocca, Sara McElroy and Chris Arrighi at the Coast Guard Beach for some fun in the sun.

Special Moments

Proms, dates, late nights, and parties; these are some of the events where our special moments took place. Sleepovers provided nights of talking and driving town seemed an ordinary thing. Bonds were made along with memories. Think now of that special feeling when you made a new friend, reflect on that "look" from a certain someone. These are the golden memories we will always cherish. These are our special moments.

Activities

Not only do the students at B-R participate in sports and academics, they also enjoy many differet clubs and activities. Outside of school we spend our time going to movies, parties, and "chillin'" with our friends. Pep rallies, skiing, and volunteering time prove that B-R students are active members of the community. The fun field trips will alw ays be a way of remembering our school. Students have been able to express themselves on many levels including drama, band concerts. and through clubs like the Ski Club and Renaissance. B-R has continued to provide programs for all types of students.

Dedications

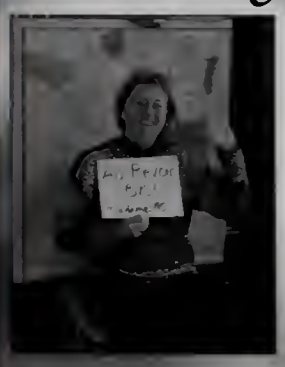
Ms. Barbara Norman

The Class of 2003 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Ms. Barbara Norman. During the course of any high school career, we are taught by many teachers, but few teachers actually make the effort to connect with every student as Ms. Norman has. Every student can benefit from her guidance and be inspired by her hard work and organization. She is the mother of three lucky kids and a great person all around. From her aid in setting the foundation for our learning, to her seemingly endless patience, she was always willing to lend an ear. We would like to thank you, Ms. Norman, for making our stay at Bridgewater-Raynham Regional that much more special.

Mr. Edward Porter

The graduating class of 2003 is honored to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Edward "The Doctor" Porter. Many teachers guide us through our years at B-R with patience, dedication, and a clear sense of purpose. But few possess the qualities which make "The Doctor" such an amazing teacher and friend. His years of teaching here at the Regional have been nothing less than memorable and he is easily considered a miracle worker. His laid back attitude and sense of humor have always made him popular with his classes. The mutual respect between mentor and students create a comfortable atmosphere in Dr. Porter's classroom. With much gratitude and respect, we dedicate this yearbook to "The Doctor!" Oh happy day!

Goodbye



Ms. Wendy Oliver

This year we bid farewell to French teacher Ms. Oliver. Over her 30 years of teaching here at B-R, she has engaged her students in such activities as "teaching French verbs on a Friday afternoon in a free country". We look back on her teaching career with pride and admiration. As a teacher, an advisor, and a mentor she inspired many students to learn a new way of life and language. We will all miss Ms. Oliver and wish her well in her future endeavors.

Special thanks to the Senior class advisors: Ms. Barbara Norman and Ms. Barbara Murdoch

You must have been a beautiful baby....

....Aaah! Those crazy years in our lives where so many sweet memories were made. The time when sandboxes were the places to be and having a spaghetti covered face was the latest trend (1. Matt Peabody and 2. Sherry Saunders). The years when we sat in front of the t.v. (with our matching undies of course!) watching the brand new episodes of "Care Bears", "Smurfs", "Sesame Street", the "Ninja Turtles", and "My Little Pony" and got angry if they weren't on (3. Lauren McGrath). The years when having an extra few pounds was considered "oh so cute". We loved our teddy bears and blankets so much we refused to leave home without them! (4. Brittany Kearney) And now as life takes us onto college, which some of us were eager to get to (5. Nichole Butts), I'm sure they'll be a few stowaways of stuffed animals!

Most of all we'll remember our friends! (6. Erica Pinto) The people who gave us the red crayon after ours broke, who played with us everyday at recess on the playground, and who offered a shoulder to cry on whenever we needed it. They were always there to make a funny face to make us smile! (7. Brigid Dailey)

To all our friends, thanks for the memories and most of all for being my friend when I asked you in kindegarten!

Holiday Party

On Monday, December 9th, 2002, the senior class gathered in the cafeteria, bound together with holiday spirit, as it permeated from each and every student present. Some were more festive than others, but no one could possibly be embarrased by his or her costume. Yes, truly, self-consciousness was not part of our holiday celebration, although in hindsight one may not understand the mindset of someone who dressed as a stocking, or an M & M, or a shower stall. For sure, it was a night to remember.

1. Staci Durso and Lindsey Venuti ask, "Plain or Peanut?"
2. Scarecrows Dana Baggs, Nicole Kimball, and Denise Bentley sing "If I Only Had a Brain!"
3. Peter Moynihan, the singing shower.
4. Helpers Amie Bettencourt, Kathleen Reid, Cheri Sharland, Bridget Flynn, Andrea Thompson, and Krista Smith surround Santa Steve Nelson.

5. Christina Ricciardi and Kristen Francoeur stop dancing for a quick photo.
6. Kyla Harrington and Haven Nichols dress for a round up.

7. Best costume award goes to Tim Cronin and Megan James Austin Powers and Foxy Cleopatra.
8. Brigid Dailey, Lizzie Burt, Steph St. Martin and Sherry Saunde enjoy the party.

10

9. Matt Peabody in "Fear and Loathing in the Cafeteria".
10. Cristen O'Donnell and Katelyn Chappell came down from heaven just for the party!
11. Is that John Freyermuth? Nope, its just a confused Matty Munise.
12. Maybe TJ² could use robo-presents John Bascon and Joe Powers.
13. Jill Diliddo shares a secret with Snow White (Radha Sinha).
14. Knights in shining armor: Tom Hennessey and Tom Greco are ready to slay any dragon.

12

POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL

We won! 22 - 8

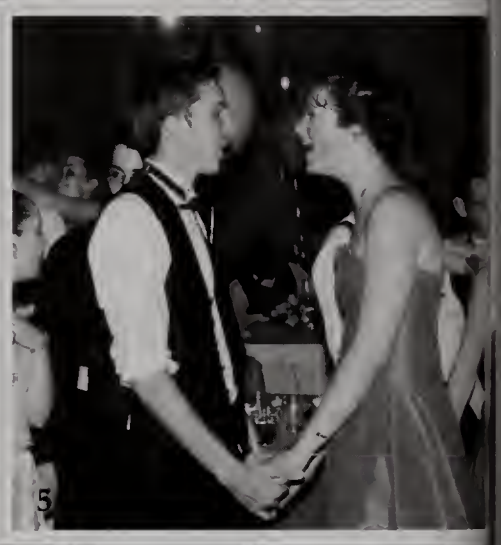
"Girls just wanna have fun!"

The fun began when two close friends met at the football scrimmage between East Bridgewater and Bridgewater-Raynham and decided to create Powder Puff Football. With weeks of preparation and hard work, the first annual Powder Puff Football game was a complete success. On a chilly, windy, Saturday morning, the senior girls arrived at the field with their semi hair still in tact. The mud covered field was transformed with EB and B-R colors. With the help of undefeated Head Coach Matty Munise (move over Coach Buron) and the rest of the varsity football senior boys, B-R clinched victory 22 to 8! Memories were made, heroes were created, and the senior girls blitzed their way into B-R history. Way to go girls, we claimed the football crown. Thanks to Steph St. Martin and Ari Wile's organization and preparation, the first ever senior girls' Powder Puff football game was a complete success!

Junior Prom

The Junior Prom, held at the Taunton Holiday Inn on May 10, 2002, was an unforgettable night filled with laughing and dancing, shared by everyone in attendance. Although only Clint Cooper and Ashley Slater could be crowned Prom King and Queen, we all felt like royalty that night. The ambiance of this special occasion was magic, elegance, and sophistication as we danced with each other to our theme song "Cruising Together," by Huey Lewis and Gwyneth Paltrow. The floor shook as we also danced to other favorites such as "Hero" by Enrique Iglesias and "I'm a Slave for You" by Brittney Spears. At the end of the night, we hobbled to our cars with sore feet swearing we would never wear these uncomfortable shoes again and sorry that the night was over.

1. Radha Sinha, Andrea Forman, and Heather Blanchard look forward to their unforgettable night.
2. Kim Nehiley, AJ Ronayne, Jackie Robak, Christina Doris, Erica Pinto, and Sandra Berry share a special moment.
3. Tom Parenteau is lookin' fine.
4. Our 2002 Junior Prom court included Tim Chiappini, Kylie Biela, Haven Nichols, Clint Cooper, Ashley Slater, Steph St.Martin, Sara McElroy, and Chris Benvie.



5. Caitlin Jahnke and Chris Flynn sing "Endless Love" to each other.
6. Brian Dwyer and Amy Kapoutsos dance to a slow song.

7. Love birds, Tim Cronin and Megan James sing along to t song while dancing.
8. Kim Morast, Ashley Slater, Sophia Myers, and Staci Durso the electric slide.
9. Pete Moynihan points out how much fun John Bascon a Lindsey Venuti are having.
10. Amanda Ryan, Sarah Prime, and Erin McNamara a looking fabulous and feeling that way too.

10

11. The Class of 2003 "keepin' it real" at their Junior Prom.
12. Five lovely ladies, Jenna Sullivan, Kathleen Reid, Megan Blanchard, Cheri Sharland, and Andrea Thompson capture their memory of the night.
13. Dan Chipman, Reagan Lenanne, Kristen Panton, John Foster, Danielle Heckbert, and Mike Petrino looking dashing before the prom.
14. Ryanne "still thinking about track" Bradshaw, shows off her sneaks.
15. Joanna Sullivan and Jimmy Reynolds take a rest from the dance floor.

Ms. and Mr. Regional

On November 22, 2002, underclassmen and seniors alike congregated for the annual semi-formal dance at which Jon Bascon won Mr. Regional and Vanessa Carney took Ms. Regional honors. The night of dancing, glamours dressses, and damcing fun was another B-R tradition we will long remember.

1. You can tell Ashley Slavin and Adam Ward have been practicing their dance moves.
2. Stephanie Domingo, Sam Forman, Brittney Cox, Desire Quinn, Ariana Warner gossip while they dance.
3. Tom Parenteau and Sara Prime share a slow dance.
4. Danielle Bentley, Lauren Young, Alicia Corr, and Amanda Iafrate can't wait to see who gets crowned Ms. Regional.

Where would B-R be without its underclassmen? Since they first walked through the lobby doors as nervous and inquisitive freshmen, they have grown as individuals and truly adjusted to their new surroundings. Once the initial fear of teachers, tardiness, and intimidating seniors passed, underclassmen had a lot more worries on their minds. As sophomores, they start getting ready for the rest of thier lives. By the time MCAS, SATs, and ACTs pass, juniors become seniors. With the same initial worries we had our freshman year, we enter our senior year with hopes and aspiritions to be successful in the life that awaits us. The class of 2003 would like to wish the underclassmen good luck in the future.

15. Jen Cueller works hard on a Catcher in the Rye project.
16. Valerie Zampine and Tamanique Rebolo are persistant note-takers.
17. Ryan O'Connell concentrates on his notes.
18. Mike Wood is eager to participate in class.

FOOTBALL

9 w - 2 l

"Get it up, Boys!"

"Play like Champions today!"

The Trojan's football team had yet another dominating season! Though they lost the Old Colony League Championship in a heartbreaking lost to Barnstable, the team still managed only two losses on the season. On Thanksgiving in their first ever "Snow Bowl", B-R beat the Silver Lake Lakers for the twenty-two consecutive year! Captains John Freyermuth, Pat Allen, Matt Peabody, Clint Cooper represented the Trojans at the Divison 1 Superbowl where they were honored with the Divison 1 MIAA Sportsmanship Award. The dynasty continues...

BOYS' SOCCER

6w - 4l - 4t

Led by senior captains, Chris Duerden, Paul Oliari, and Steve Rebolo, and supported by OCL All-Stars Tim Gracia, Brian Sousa, and Jason Weigold, the Boys' Varsity Soccer Team enjoyed a successful season in 2003. Under the guidence of Head Coach Mr. Bill Crane, the team finished third in the OCL, including a memorable 2-0 victory over Marshfield under the lights at the Bordon Colony Soccer Complex. The team returned to the South Sectional Tournament after a one year absence, losing to Nauset in the first round.

"Success is our only option, ailure's not."

The Girls' Varsity Soccer Team had another incredible season. Going into the start of the season, Coach Heslin shared with the girls that "we don't repeat championships; we 4-peat!" And 4-peat was precisely what these girls did. They practiced and played with tenacity and went as far as being the South Sectional Champions! Led by captains Holly Laubinger, who had over 100 points during her soccer career, Paula Moniz, Kim Morast, Sophia Myers, Kristyn Whittington, and goalie Julie Innocenzi, everyone gave her all to contribute to such a successful season. Good luck next year girls!

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

8 w - 0 l

The 2002 Trojans had their best season ever. They won the first ever Old Colony League title for B-R. A main factor in the team's success was the senior leadership of Tim Chiappini, Rob Sanderson, Pete Balboni, and Aaron Pacheco. The future looks bright for the team as a new class of runners is greatly progressing.

GOLF

12 w - 4 l

The B-R Golf Team continued its winning ways with another great season. Led by Captain Cory Blanchard, the Trojans were able to qualify and compete for the state title in the State Tournament in Western Massachusetts. The golf team finished second only to Barnstable in the Old Colony League. Highlighting his senior year, Captain Cory Blanchard won medalist honors at the State Qualifier by shooting a score of 71. The Trojans also played in the rain soaked Old Colony League Tournament held at Hyannis Country Club. The OCL Tournament was called off after nine holes of play due to inclimate weather. The golf team also was recognized with the Old Colony League Golf Sportsmanship Award. This award was voted on by the players at the OCL Tournament. The Trojans had key contributers which included: Dan Luchetti, Derek Phillipe, Matt Cayer, Andy Carson, Matt Bezzaro, Mark Folkins, Jeff Weeks, and Jeff Bradshaw. The team will be losing half of its starters, but still visualizes its chances of contending for the OCL title in the upcoming season.

"Bump! Set! Spike!"

Though our volleyball team at B-R has not shined as the other sports have, its team has shown that fun and enthusiasm are the true feelings of playing. As captain Alex Mastria led the team, the girls bonded as friends and teammates. Pasta parties, food runs before home games, and bus rides to away games allowed these girls to have as much fun as they could. Lasting relationships were formed on and off the court between girls of different grades and talents. Our new uniforms, consisting of spandex, allowed the team to move freely and dig balls off the ground. The winning record does not reflect the hard work that went in to every practice. Keep having fun and let's hope to improve the record next year!

CHEERLEADING

" G - O, Let's GO!"

The Trojans' Varsity Cheerleaders showed their spirit every weekend as they cheered on the varsity football team. In November, B-R hosted the O.C.L. Cheerleading competition in which they placed second and earned a bid to South Sectionals. The basketball cheerleading squad worked hard all season practicing for competition where ever they weren't cheering or the boys varsity basketball team. In a repeat of the fall season, the girls hosted the winter O.C.L. competition placing second and earned a bid to south Sectionals. Captains Amanda Clapp and Alysa Freni led the team through both exciting seasons, making the hard practices pay off at competion.

A little talent."

Damn Yankees

Vibrant costumes, a terrific, detailed set and an incredible cast made the '01-'02 production of "Damn Yankees" a great success. Emily Goudreau, did an amazing job playing Lola, the femme fatale. C.J Pennington with his disbolical stage presence put on a very convincing show. Erik Edson following their lead did a spectacular job playing the gullible yet lovable Joe Boyd. The rest of the cast brought the audience to their feet with their charisma and amazing display of talent. The show was directed by and also choreographed by Ms. Kelley Baran. Ms. Janice Issa worked her magic as the musical director. Everyone was dressed wonderfully with the help and direction of Atia DeRosa and Daniel Gravely as the costume designers. Producer and assistant director Ms. Lisa White was generous with her time and patience. Of course the show wouldn't have been as exciting without the set designs of Mr. Jack Phaneuf. All in all "Damn Yankess" made for a very exciting and memorable show.

1. The Devil, C.J. Pennington laments.

2. Joe Boyd, Erik Edson, ponders selling his soul to C.J.

3. Joe Cannon, Omar Zeid, Kyle McCarthy, Pat Lee, Mark LaFrance, Nathan Conrad, Jon Bragg, Jason Munise, Bryan Sharland, Mike Morlani, and Jesse Witcher discuss their dedication to the game.

4. The Mambo!!!

5. Doris, Nicole Price, provides comic relief.

6. Joe Boyd, Erik Edson, enjoys the game.

7. Washington Senators fans show their support.

Grease

" You're the one that I want"

Mrs. White has been a part of the spring musical for the past fourteen years. She has been the Production Manager, Assistant Director, Producer, and eventually, Director. This year, for the musical production of Grease, Mrs. White will fulfill the roles of Producer/Assistant Director and Faculty Advisor.

This year's cast includes :Michael Vachon as Danny, Emily Goudreau as Sandy, Gavin Killea as Kinickie, Zoe Furtado as Rizzo, Michael Morlani as Doody, Alicia Spector as Frenchy, Greg Webber as Roger, Jess Phaneuf as Jan, Julie Wood as Marty, Tyler Clancy as Sonny, Josh Webber as Eugene, and Laura Hubbard as Patty Simcox. Also, a surprise faculty member will take the part of Teen Angel.

This year's staff includes: Ms. Kelley Baran as Director and Choreographer, Ms. Janice Issa as Musical Director/Conductor, Mr. Jack Phaneuf as Set Designer, and Ms. Linda Blocker as Lighting Designer. Teamwork and dedication always result in a quality production. .

1. The cast of Greese: M. Pappas, J. Donovan, J. Petersen. C. Vespa, CC. Whooley, J. McGrath, E, Winsor, L. Yafrate, C. Hall, K. Chappell, J. McBride, S. Correia, B. Nichols, Z. Fortado, J. Wood, E. Goudreau, M. Morlani, T. Clancy, J. Godfrey, N. Croty, N. Mace, A. Paul, S. Haluch, A. Atkins, L. Delahanty, L. Hubbard, J. Sankus, A. Waterman. J. Phaneuf, J. Webber, M. LaFrance, and G. Webber.
2. Julie Wood, Jess Phaneuf, and Tyler Clancy wait for their scene to come up.
3. For brothers Greg Webber and Josh Webber theater runs in their blood.
4. Ashley Atkins, Leigh Delahanty, Shannon Haluch, and Jessica Godfrey study their lines. While Ashley Waterman dances in the background,
5.Director/Choreographer Kelley Baran helps Mike Vachon and Jill Peterson learn their dance moves.
6. Zoe Furtado and Gavin Killea wait for their next direction.
7. Mark LaFrance and Julie Wood ...break it down!

"Left, Left... Left, Right, Left!"

Marching Band

The marching band has had yet another wonderful season. Under the direction of Mr. Bill Solari and Mr. John Fantucchio, they performed selections from the Civil War era during half times of home football games.

Led by drum majors Karyl Dunham and Joe McBride, the band marched at the Weymouth Jamboree, Abington Jamboree, the NESBA competition in Peabody and the Quincy Christmas Parade. They had a fantastic year!

1. Caitlin Jahnke plays the piccolo with "perfect pitch".
2. Trumpet soloist Stewart MacArthur takes the crowd's attention.
3. Mark Amaral and Jon Wilson keep the beat.
4. The band finishes another wonderful performance.
5. Billy MacArthur leads the band.
6. Justin Lovell belts out the song on his saxaphone.
7. Justin Lovell and Eric Dimarzio lead the tromboners along the right path.

Color Guard

"Twirl!"

This year the B-R color guard performed songs from the Civil War era. Through long hours of practice and endless support from their captain, Lizzie Burt, the color guard had one of its best seasons ever.

Dazzling the crowd at the Abington Jamboree, the color guard earned four stars, their best rating to date. This year's color guard proved the good things really do come in small packages.

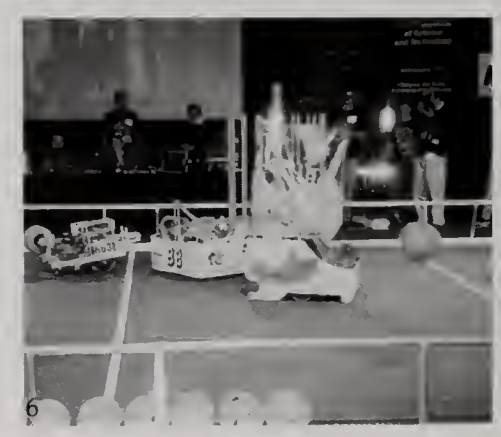
1. 2002-2003 color guard Lauren Dimarzio, Karen Dimarzio, Krista Smith, Andrea Thompson, and Lizzie Burt.
2. Krista Smith holds her flag high.
3. Andrea Thompson marches with pride.
4. The B-R color guard twirls in unison.
5. The color guard ends the field shows with flair.
6. The squad performs to "Battle Hymn of the Republic".
7. After their last home game performance, seniors Andrea Thompson, Lizzie Burt, and Krista Smith remember the highlights of the year.

TJ²

"Lucky year # 7!"

The 2001-2002 season was a huge success for TJ². The team went to two different regionals in Connecticut and New Jersey. The team placed 3rd in New Jersey our of more than thirty teams, as well as winning the Daimler-Chryslet Spirit Award. In Connecticut, their success continued as the drive team finished in 2nd place. The drive team included B-R students Caitlin Jahnke, Aaron Burke, Mike McGuire, Chris Sczymczuk, Krista Smith, and Paul Zeller.

The elected leadership included Captain Caitlin Jahnke, Assistant Captain Andrew Carson, Secretary of Public Relations Mark LaFrance, and Secretary of Spirit Jess Phaneuf. With 43 students, 7 teachers, 4 alumni, and 9 parents, the team finished off the incredible season as quarter-finalists in their division at Nationals in Orlando, FL.



1. Andy Carson is happy to be in Walt Disney World for National Competition in 2002.
2. Tom Calef and Mike McGuire carry TJ² off the playing field.
3. The 2002 robotics team eargerly awaits a match.
4. Ms. Calef, Tom Calef, Mike McGuire, Dave McGuire, and Caitlin Jahnke make prematch checks on their robot.
5. Terry Young and Ms. Calef inspect a robot carefully.
6. TJ² grabs a goal from Lebanon's grasshopper robot!
7. The 2002 Drive Team: Aaron Burke, Mr. Glenn Morrison, Mike McGuire, and Caitlin Jahnke.

Publications

"... Ask Ryanne."

Whether it was newspaper staff, Creative Writing Club, or Journalism Class, every student involved in creating school publications found an outlet for his or her creative talents.

Writing text and captions, proof reading, photo identification, and page layout took hours and hours. Last period of every day was spent creating the yearbook you are looking through now and also the weekly calendar and newspaper.

After school, the members of the respective clubs continued the process of writing and lay out designs. The staffs learned of the real life responsiblities of journalists, having fun along the way. We are proud of our three publications: The Regional Sound, Unitas 2003, and Asylum.

1. The Regional Sound: Ms. Diane McGuire, Brittney Nichols, Sarah Correia, Ross, Kerri Whittaker, and Dan Mackey.
2. Unitas: Andrea Thompson, Lizzie Burt, Ryanne Bradshaw, Ms. Diane McGuire, Erica Pinto, Brigid Dailey, Ross, Brittney Nichols, Sarah Correia, Kim Smith, Tim Pearson, Rachel Hauck, Kyla Harrington, Dan Mackey, Gus Al-Obaidi, Jackie Robak, and Jeff Ramadan.
3. Tim Pearson works on the laptop as Dan Mackey thinks of captions for yearbook pictures.
4. Ms. McGuire points out the correct lay-out to Ryanne Bradshaw on the computer.
5. Ryanne Bradshaw helps Tim Pearson with the ladder after the Senior bleacher picture.
6. The Creative Writing Club: Tim Tilbe, Jessica Sares, Meredith Kellogg, Mark Lyman, Ms. Diane McGuire, Matt Kellogg, Leigh Delahanty, Lulu Li, and Elizabeth Kellogg.
7. Danielle Prescott and Michelle Quinn work on the weekly calendar.

Ski Club

During such a snowy winter the weather seemed to be begging us to hit the slopes. The rush of skiing down a double black diamond slolumb is unmatched, just ask one of our club members. This year the ski club visited suck destinations as Okemo, Sunday River, Loon Mountain, Attitash, and Waterville Valley. This year was undoubtedly one of the best winters for skiers in recent history.

1. Some ski club members pose for a picture before hitting the slopes.
2. Mr. Heaslip and Mrs. Holt are proud of their ski club organization.
3. After a long day of snowboarding, these guys are ready to go home.
4. Dave Boydd, Ashley Freitas, Scott Haynes, Michelle Jasper, John Sivieri, and Jenna Weldon smile nervously after catching a glimpse of the black diamond trails.

5. Katelyn Kennedy, Colin Florence, and Christine Noone stop at the lodge before they start out on their runs.
